

Internal SEO

Internal SEO may sound like an unfortunate medical procedure, but it simply refers to work carried out within a website internally to improve its performance on the search engines. This may be:

- Creating a dynamic site map of all pages on the site
- Tweaking meta tags to target keywords
- Adding anchor or cross links within the site